MEET MICHELLE

Michelle E. Caswell is the founder of Purely His, a discipleship movement she began with great conviction to mentor others out of bondage and into freedom, a process she refers to as getting “unstuck”. Michelle created a proven 5-step mentoring process based upon her own healing journey, which has helped to free people of all backgrounds for over a decade.

As a relatable and down-to-Earth author and public speaker, Michelle pours out the redemptive hope of Christ by sharing her testimony and teachings at churches, rehabs, prisons, and retreats.

My time with Michelle has always left me encouraged as well as focused. She is precise in calling out what the root of an issue is, but is also able to extend how God gives grace and loves us through our issues...

One of the things about being at an event where Michelle is speaking is the crowd size may vary, but the energy of the room is the same every time. The Spirit of the room. I remember it from the first time she spoke one on one to an unbeliever. It was me. It was a very small crowd of one person. All the many counselors and psychologists couldn't get through to me, but she could.
